This is what customer said:

Worst case is the fact that the foil on top says albuterol!!! None of the other ones say that.

Hi,

please look at the pictures attached, this was open. if we can replace it for him. let me know how you like to do the exchange.

also, the Descovy is expiring 8/31/20 so it short-dated. he said how much discount can we offer him? maybe he will keep it. if not need to replace with long-dated.

I have the same issue with TLC , some products are short-dated. can you please look at the invoice and see whats short-dated.

thank you
